PROGRAM

May Meeting – Focus on the Future

I think this is a very important meeting for our Guild, and hope all members will make an earnest effort to attend and actively participate. I know our members have many ideas about how the Guild can better achieve the goals of promoting the understanding of all aspects of quilting and fostering good fellowship among persons in the greater New York area who are interested in quilting. But not all of your ideas make their way to the board or to the larger membership to discuss. I really hope you'll all see this as the opportunity to share what you've been thinking about (continued page 2).

WORKSHOP

Date: Sunday, May 14, 2006

Time: 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Place: 343 8th Avenue, New York

“Two-Sided Fabric Page/Fabric Folios” with Leslie Levison. Cost: $50.00 (includes tea for Mother’s Day).

If you liked her presentation in April, you will want to take her workshop in May. Leslie will be teaching many of her techniques while showing us how to make fabric folios. She will be teaching thread choices, embroidery stitches, beading, stamping, photo attachments, and the general way to make a piece sing. If you are interested, contact Mary Butler at: 212-662-7771 or send a cheque made out to Empire Quilters to Mary Butler c/o Empire Quilters, 10W. 95th Street, New York, NY 10025.

Supply List: Fabric scraps (like a color, theme around it), copy of a photo to incorporate into the piece, embroidery thread to compliment your piece, embroidery needles and beading needles if you will be using beads, small piece of muslin and small piece of batting (fat 1/8 is enough), any embellishment you enjoy working with such as charms, beads, buttons, found objects, rubber stamps and pad, foils, etc.

PROGRAM CONTINUED

how to improve what the Guild offers.

This meeting will be set up in the form of discussion groups of 10 – 15 people, depending on table size. If enough Board members are available, each group will have a board member to help get the discussions going, and to answer questions if possible.
This will be a four-step process:

1. General discussion in small groups of the programs, activities and services the Guild provides, or might provide;
2. The entire membership then hears from each group the top 3 or 4 programs or resources they think are important to provide and plan for. I expect there'll be over lap, and we'll look to consolidate to a list of about 10 discussion topics that we consider the highest priority for further discussion.
3. Groups re-form to discuss planning ideas –
each group focusing on one particular topic
4. The entire membership hears from each group regarding the suggestions for the topic the group discussed

Here are some questions to think about
before the meeting:

*offer good with current quilt guild membership

1. What activities and resources do you use
(e.g. program, library, focus groups, Block of the Month)? What would you try that you haven't before?
2. What programs and activities offered by the Guild (or another Guild) have I especially enjoyed, and why?
3. If you could personally plan a program or service for the Guild to offer, what would it be? For example, would you want more focus groups or programs on techniques – and would you want more 'traditional' or more contemporary techniques – or both.
(you don't have to have a detail plan)
4. What sorts of books or resources would you want in the Library; raffle; etc.
5. What sorts of events can we have to raise money to support our programs, including our show?
6. What activities will increase the sense of fellowship – how do we get to know one another better? (Continued page 11).

EQG Yahoo Group

Empire Quilters has set up an online Yahoo group. Many of the Guild's members are familiar with a Yahoo newsgroup and an equal number haven't a clue how these things work or what takes place in one. If you are in either of these categories now is your chance to jump into the online community because you will have your fellow Guild members there to guide you and help you along the way.

In summary, this Yahoo Group is open to paid-up members of Empire Quilters and is meant to encourage discussion and collaboration between members. You can post messages and share photos and much, much more. It is hoped that all Empire Quilters members will eventually join the Yahoo group to provide another way of communicating within the Guild membership. At press time there were 46 members of the Guild who have signed on since the Group was launched in mid-March. We invited all persons who had an email address on the membership list but some of these invitations might have been seen as "spam" or at least "unfamiliar" since you would not be used to getting Yahoo emails from this Group. We will be conducting future invites but you don't have to wait to join. It is as simple as sending us an email to EQG-subscribe@yahoogroups.com, mention your name and that you are an Empire Quilters member. That's all you need to get going.

After you have joined you can determine how you interact with the Yahoo Group. You can elect to receive all posted messages individually, as a summary of the day's activity, or not at all. If you chose the latter option you can always go online to read the postings. The messaging is the best feature of the EQG Yahoo Group. You can ask for quilting advice, share ideas or news on Guild activities, mention upcoming Quilt Shows or pretty much anything else that is "on topic". Besides the messages from the EQG Yahoo Group you can also post pictures, upload files relevant to quilting, or contact other Group users. This is a closed group (not open to non-Guild participants) and this "by invite only" criteria means you will be safe from spam and unwanted advertisements. It is the ideal place to get to know your other Guild members other than our monthly meetings.

If you have signed up you can always access the Group through the Yahoo Groups home page at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/EQG/>. Here you will need to log in with your User ID and Password that you set up at the time of the invitation. You can also request an invite by clicking the "Join This Group" button. See you online.

LIBRARY NEWS

Although the April Meeting was smaller in attendance than usual (think April Holidays) it was an enthusiastic one as far as the focus groups were concerned, great subjects and a great opportunity to see some member's interests. Be sure to check the listings for May and June. The library thanks Dorothy Nasil, Marie T. Annoual, and Sr. Cynthia Cunningham and Leila Leiberman for their donations of magazines and books. Please check your bookshelves for any borrowed books and return them before we close for the summer. Thanks to Ginny Russell we have a copy of the presentation of last month on the copyright issues that can be borrowed.

The Library committee would also like to thank C&T Publishing for very graciously donating two brand new books to our library: "Puzzle Quilts" by Paula Nadelstern and "At Play With Appliqué" by Dilys A. Fronks.

SHOW & TELL

Thank you to the following guild members for sharing their colorful works on a soggy April day.

Tina Barth (Anonymous Charity Quilt), Jennifer Bigelow (Psychedelic Twists), Jane Broaddus (Haiku Frog), Lauren Dieterich (Controlled Chaos, Rag Quilt, Jungle Friends, and Unnamed), Anna Faustino (Lost Freedom, Stress, and On Top of the Quilters World), Barbara Hull (Going to Pieces? Certainly Knot! and Crocus), Beth Pile (Happy St. Patrick's Day), Svetlana Popikova (Amazon Jewels) and Rhona Triggs (Fireworks).

If you missed the meeting, you can see these works on the guild website. Look for the Show & Tell link.

WIN A $25.00 GIFT CERTIFICATE!

In order to encourage members to renew their membership early, we will be raffling off a $25.00 gift certificate to the City Quilter. So get your checks, money orders or cash to Maggie or Emma before June of 2006 and be entered in our raffle. Just remember, the Membership Committee must receive the renewals prior to the June meeting for you to be eligible.

This is a great incentive to renew early. To make this easy, we've inserted a copy of the 2006 – 2007 membership form on the facing page. Good luck to all.

UPCOMING WORKSHOP

"African Trails" with Dorothy Scalice. This is the workshop you voted for after Dorothy showed us the quilt when she visited Empire last fall. Dorothy will show us how to make our own version. Hers was made using African fabrics, but you can use whatever you wish. By using this free-wheeling process, you'll create randomized blocks that are positively liberating and colorful. You will also learn the technique of sewing down Quick Bias Tape with a double needle. $40.00. Supply list will be in June newsletter. If interested, contact Mary Butler at 212-662-7771. ## CONGRATULATIONS!

"Congratulations to Ligaya Siachongco and Jane Rosenthal for their second and third place wins in The City Quilter's annual challenge! All of the quilts that were displayed at the shop were incredible, creative, beautiful, fun and well-executed. If you missed the exhibit, be sure to plan to visit (or even participate!) next year. Good job, Ligaya and Jane!" Maybe they will bring them to "Show and Tell" for those who missed the exhibit.

QUILTER OF THE MONTH

Debra Levin will be the Quilter of the Month in May. Debra began quilting in 2002 while taking a break from working in the corporate world. She has since returned to work but the quilting has stuck and she now views quilting as her second job! Debra views herself as a contemporary art quilter who has fallen in love with traditional quilting -- but as one of her favorite teachers Diane Rode Schneck says -- "It's All Good"!

SUNSHINE/WELCOMING

We continue to welcome new members and guests each meeting. I enjoy welcoming them to the meeting. There is always so much going on. Thank you Michael for the neat business cards you had made for Empire. Pass them along to your friends. Empire Guild is a great guild to join. Beth Pile

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

We had quite a nice assortment of blocks this month - all using different color combinations and looking quite lovely together. The entrants were Tina Barth (2), Sylvia Hughes (2), Anna Krassy (1), Beth Pile (1) and Mary Ferry (2) who was the lucky winner.

There will not be a Block of the Month in June so watch for the next newsletter to find out about the September Block of the Month. Enjoy your summer, which is a good time to make charity quilts. Leila Lieberman

FOCUS GROUPS

“On Going Crazy Quilt Group” (3:30 pm – 5:00 pm)

Bring the CQ block that you have been working on this year. We will help you decide how to finish it and turn it into a quilt. This will be our last focus group of the year. We hope all have gained or renewed an interest in crazy quilting. We have enjoyed sharing. Any questions call Beth Pile 631-286-5532 or Natalie Garfinkle 212-877-4702.

“Fabric Postcards” (3:30 pm – 5:00 pm)

Guild member June Calendar will present fabric postcard making instructions. She'll have photocopied instructions and they will be available to people who cannot stay for the workshop. As June said, “it's not rocket science. I am experimenting and finding a trick or two that work for me. It's really getting to be a big nationwide fad, I read about them in just about everything.” June will have a variety of samples to inspire people at a workshop or for those who even just enjoy hearing about them. Any questions, contact June Calender at: junecalen@aol.com.

CELEBRATING over 60 years of Custom Machine Quilting

Though the Board oversees the general activities, we have agreed that we'll all benefit from presenting a forum that gives everyone an opportunity to talk about what's important to her/him. Though I expect there'll be a need to register some complaints – my fervent hope is that everyone will see that this is a chance to focus on the future – even learning from past shortcomings. AND - I want us to have FUN while doing this – it's not a chore. This is a unique opportunity for the entire guild membership to be involved in setting the goals for the next few years.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

I don't know anyone who doesn't love the spring. It's wonderful to see the flowers and trees in bloom, to hear the birds trilling their songs, and of course, to feel the weather getting warmer. There's something about the earth's reawakening that stimulates our own creative spirit. It's Spring Quilt Show season – already I've been to 4 shows – and I find it wonderful to see all the wonderful work that members of our peer guilds are doing. The breadth of techniques and the use of color and patterns are so stimulating – like having the extra cup of coffee that gives a little buzz. Each show makes me more excited about our own show – which is now LESS than one year away.

I want to thank the Show committee for the work they've been doing to plan the show. Larry, as usual, will keep us all updated on the scope, the categories, and what volunteer opportunities there are for all the membership. I want to thank as well, the Raffle Quilt committee who put in many long hours on the quilt. Paul and her team have done wonderful work – and we hope to have it ready to show to you all very soon.

FOCUS ON THE FUTURE:

As mentioned last time, we'll be presenting a different sort of meeting in May. This is a working meeting for our members – but hopefully work you'll enjoy participating in and consider a valuable contribution to the Guild. As a guild in the largest city in the country we have the potential to offer an extraordinary array of programs and activities encompassing the interests of a very diverse membership. The Board and I want to hear what each of you hopes to get out of the Guild, as well as how best to engage more members in the activities we present. So, please take time to look at the section titled 'Focus on the Future' and come prepared to share your ideas with us so we set a course that interests and excites you.

I look forward to seeing you in May, and hearing what you have to say.

Jennifer

SHARE TABLE

This is the time of year for spring cleaning. Get all those scraps together that you've been meaning to get rid of and bring them to the scrap table. This is a great monthly fund raiser for the guild. It's a great place to find that little piece you were looking for.

RAFFLES

Remember, if you wear your nametag, you get a free raffle ticket. It's a great way to get to know your fellow guild members by name. Tickets are $1.00 each. The more you purchase, the greater your chance to win.

SERVICE COMMITTEE

Now that summer is almost here, it's a great time to make charity quilts, knitted and crocheted preemie hats and booties, wheelchair bags, and stuffed animals.

There are patterns for all the above on the Empire website that can be downloaded in PDF format. There is also a link to download Adobe® Reader if you don't already have it.

Not only are there patterns, but there are cutting and assembly instructions, and supply lists for quilt patterns featured on the site.

Just go to the Empire website at: www.empirequilters.net and click on the Service link.
