WE'VE BONDED WITH JOAN SHAY

Joan Shay is an award-winning quilter from Cape Cod, Massachusetts. She has developed a unique appliqué technique that she calls Appli-bond©. The technique allows you to create 3-Dimensional motifs. It is quick and easy because turning and sewing edges are eliminated. Two layers of fabric are bonded together and the design is cut on the line with no seam allowance. If you have bonded the fabric properly you will not have fraying even when washed and dried, and you will be able to curl and shape the pieces.

Joan is the author of "Petal by Petal", "Petal Play the Traditional Way" and "3 Quilters Celebrate the 4 Seasons". She has also published articles in The American Quilter, Miniature Quilts; Quilting is Hot, Quilting Today and Patchwork & Quilting in the United Kingdom. Joan travels nationally and internationally teaching at guilds, conferences and shops. We are truly delighted that she will be with us!

For more information about Joan Shay and her Appli-bond© technique, visit her website: www.petalplay.com. Note that Joan will be conducting a full-day workshop on Sunday, October 14, 2007.

The kit includes all fabrics, borders, bindings and background. Also included are the Heat-n-Bond, glass beads and embroidery floss.

Please visit Joan Shay's website: www.petalplay.com and plan to attend Joan's lecture at the guild meeting on Saturday, October 13, 2007.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

Dealing with Faces

Date: Sunday,

November 11, 2007

Instructor: Marilyn Belford

Cost: $60 (includes kit)

Working from Marilyn Belford's drawings, you will be guided through the transference of design, applying fabric, and free-motion machine embroidery for embellishment of portraits. Students will produce samples that will enable you to make your own realistic fabric portraits at home. You can select which features to work on — a smile, eyes, glasses, hair, etc. Student level for this workshop is Intermediate to Advanced.

Flower Weaving with Anna Faustino

Date: Sunday,
December 9, 2007

Instructor: Anna
Faustino

Cost: $60 (includes kit)

Anna Faustino returns with her curvy weaving Spring Flowers. Anna's new twist on her famous, fabulous weaving technique turns winter into spring. Her kit includes all the materials necessary. Anna's workshops are always popular, and are guaranteed to be informative and fun. Be sure to reserve your spot as soon as possible.

Quilter's Fan

Date: Sunday,
February 10, 2008

Instructor: Pat Yamin

Cost: $50 (+ $10
template)

Pat Yamin is a founding member of Empire Quilters. She will be conducting a day-long workshop on the Quilter's Fan. This is a great 4" block to hand piece or sew on your machine. Pat will be teaching accurate rotary cutting and piecing techniques. Learn to piece both concave and convex seams to make your block lay flat every time. The Fan was a popular Kansas City Star pattern and we continue to love it today.

Sensational Sashiko by Machine

Date: Sunday, April 13, 2008

Instructor: Sharon Pederson

Cost: $60

Canadian quilt maker, teacher and author Sharon Pederson calls this workshop "a non-traditional approach to a traditional needle art form." Her theory is that if it can be done by hand, it can be done by machine and sashiko is no exception.

Originating as the "common" man's garment decoration, sashiko has been adopted by quilters to add exciting designs to their quilt tops and garments. Using your sewing machine and heavy weight threads learn how to achieve this stunning embellishment on either a single thickness of fabric or through a quilt "sandwich."

Barbara Barber says Aloha!

Date: Sunday, May 11, 2008

Instructor: Barbara Barber

Cost: $50

This multi-technique class led by Barbara Barber encompasses several aspects of machine work. The circle is manipulated and used in fun and ingenious ways. Learn a whole new approach to appliqué that guarantees smooth curves in simple shapes. The appliqué is simple but effective and can be done before quilting or later using the "appli-quilt" technique. Sewn in any color scheme it's lots of fun because it somehow feels like a bit of a cheat but it's not — you are simply creating a really fun quilt in super quick time!

Experiencing Africa through African

Folklore Embroidery

Date: Sunday, June 8, 2008

Instructor: Leora Raikin

Cost: $60 (includes kit)

Using colorful African threads and beads against a black background, students embroider images of Ndebele life as they learn about the lifestyle and customs of this fascinating culture and community. Develop new skills, expand your world, be creative and have fun in a colorful exciting environment.

You will learn ...

Stitching techniques for completing an African Folklore Embroidery design including 3a) chain stitch, 3b) Satin Stitch, 3c) French knots, and 3d) Bullion stitch.

Embellishment techniques: Use of color, variegated threads and metallic thread for enhancement and effect

Beadwork techniques: Playing with threads, fiber and color, mixing fibers, threads and metallic

Enhancement and visual art techniques: Creating fiber art out of African Folklore Embroidery — cutting and stitching of different fabric onto the design.

Completed kit designs can be made into quilts, purses, pillows, wall-hangings and more.

All workshops are from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday's at 343 8th Avenue, at 27th Street. If you are interested in any of these workshops, please contact Mary Butler at 212-662-7771.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone. We had a great first meeting of the year yesterday. I so enjoyed seeing everyone who returned after the summer, and seeing a number of new members and visitors as well. Jo Coon's program was lively and colorful, and the Show and Tell, and Quilter of the Month segments were inspiring. I think all would agree the member 'flea market' was fun and a great success.

Though you may not know it, some of us were busy this summer as well. As you learned yesterday, we have begun planning for our next show for 2009. It may seem a long way off, but we learned with the 2007 show that the year and a half will pass very quickly. Paula Kenney and Larry Gifford have agreed to co-chair the show, and an oversight committee met this summer to start discussing the work ahead. Volunteers are needed – as always – and you'll see something from Paula later in this newsletter.

I want to thank Lee Ebs taking the lead on the creation of the 'Big Apple' quilt, which was on display at the meeting. Thanks, also, to all the members who contributed blocks, and who met on a warm Saturday in August to assemble the quilt. We're proud to be able to present this as an earlier raffle to kick off the fundraising for the 2009 show in a big way this year. A new member of our guild – Debbie Croft – has agreed to donate the quilting for this piece. More information will be given at the next meeting about the raffle.

Also this summer, a small team worked on a draft revision for our Bylaws, to update them. The draft is being reviewed by two of our members who are lawyers – to make sure we don't put ourselves in any sort of risk due to inadequate or unclear wording. The draft will be sent to the full board for review and comments, and a final version will be presented in November for the Membership to vote on.

As always, I hope that any members who have concerns or ideas about what you'd like more of - or less of - in our meetings and our 2009 show will contact me or any of the Executive Board members. Finally – remember the success of this guild lies in active participation of all the members. Please volunteer to keep this running as well as you want it to.

Enjoy the cooler autumn weather. I'll see you at the next meeting. - - -Jennifer

MEMBER NEWS

Diane Rode Schneck's altered recipe card made for the "Cloth Paper Scissors" challenge and card swap is pictured in their September/October 2007 issue. It's on page 53, and also on the Table of Contents! Congratulations Diane!

Once again we get to offer our congratulations to guild member Anna Faustino for acquiring more awards! Anna's quilt Flamenco Dance took the 1st Place Award in the Made by Machine Quilts category at the 2007 American Quilter's Society Quilt Show in Nashville, Tennessee, and her quilt Where Is the Quilt Show received an Honorable Mention in the On The Wall Quilts category. Keep up the good work, Anna!

Please send in news of your quilting and artistic accomplishments, we would all love to hear about them.

DYCKMAN FARMHOUSE MUSEUM QUILT

Those who stopped by to see the appliquéd and quilted blocks laid out at the last meeting were amazed. This month the Dyckman team will sash the blocks and attach the border. We will have the border ready to quilt by the next meeting and then the binding will be sewn on ready for finishing for the Uptown Treasures Tour, Sunday October 21 at the Farmhouse, 204 and Broadway. All are invited and, after a quilting stint, can take part in the tour on the jitney going to various uptown historic sites. Quilt

Magazine, a Harris publication, is interested in featuring Empire Quilters in a story on reproducing antique quilts. For information call Mary Butler at 212•662-7771 or check the web:

www.dyckmanfarmhouse.org.

BIG APPLE QUILT UPDATE

First, let me thank you all again for the wonderful array of apple blocks. We're amazing!

Next, the great news: Debbie Croft, new Empire member and The City Quilter's long-arm machine expert, kindly offered to quilt our raffle quilt for free. Wow, are we lucky!

Other news: How many of you quilters have almost finished a project, then decided on a major overhaul? Well, night before last I woke up and tossed and turned for way too long. Finally I decided to follow the experts' advice, to get up and DO something. What I intended to do was to work on the Big Apple Quilt, simply adding the extra border fabric required for long-arm quilting. However, when I looked at the back I thought about how the main section, using the 1995 Block of the Month blocks, could easily be made into a very attractive twin size charity quilt. Also in my mind was a comment overheard at our meeting about how blocks created for the raffle quilt should have precedence over old BOM blocks. So I got out my seam ripper and got busy. When I woke up the next morning I hoped it had just been a dream, but when I looked at my sewing area, I knew the truth. I just finished the new quilt back. Tomorrow I will add the label; then rush it to The City Quilter before I dream up any more changes. Hope you all like the new back. Lee

QUILTER'S OF THE MONTH

Emily Klainberg and Barbara Feinstein

We are identical twins who have quilted for about 12 years. We've been sewing, knitting and doing other needlecraft since we were young girls, when our mother taught us everything she knew.

Emily got us started in quilting when she signed both of us up to be in Judy Doenias' hand quilting class 12 years ago. We've been hooked ever since and have transitioned to working with a sewing machine. In fact, the knitting needles and crochet hooks have taken a back seat to the sewing machine. We try to take as many classes as possible, expanding our knowledge of all aspects of traditional and art quilts.

While Emily was working, Barbara usually finished her projects. Emily's excuse was that "I'm working!" Emily retired 7 years ago and is busier than ever, so she's still not finishing projects. Emily works at the City Quilter and we both teach there. We also teach craft classes for the Elder Craftsmen.

While we are identical twins, our quilts are not. Barbara usually works in Japanese fabrics or muted tones and Emily's are as bright as they can be. We were Dear Jane fanatics and have finished our quilts.

Our lives have been as different as our quilts. Barbara lived in Europe (England, Sweden and Italy) for 9 years and raised two sons while her husband worked for Unilever. When she returned to the U.S.A., she lived in Indiana and California before returning to the east coast to Stamford, CT. During Barbara's "movings", Emily stayed in NYC working for various City and State government offices and retiring in 2000. Both did knitting, crocheting, sewing (but not quilt making) and cooking!

Our favorite time is when Emily stays at Barbara's house in CT, or Barbara stays with Emily in NYC and they spend time working on quilts for our friends, our grandchildren or just for ourselves. One cuts, one sews, we give each other suggestions and before we know it a quilt is finished.

We've been attending Quilting By the Lake for 9 years and have honed our skills in all aspects of quilting.

CHARITY REPORT

The Charity Committee would like to thank everyone for their donation of beautiful quilts. Helen Beall/Lee Ebs - 1 quilt; Anna Krassy - 2 quilts; Jennifer Bigelow - 4 quilts; Mary Ferry - 1 quilt; Ann Strauss - 1 quilt and matching pillow; Sandy Syken - 1 quilt; Baby Hats: 41 hats made by Sandy Syken and 5 made by Joan Wirth. Fabric Donation: Mary Ferry and Pamela Leonard Wexler. Just a reminder to all our members, we need tops for Charity Day and a matching back would be very helpful, too. Just remember, part of your membership is to make one quilt per year - why not make your top (with back) now and bring it to Charity Day in March. All you have to do is assemble it and you are set. Remember everyone; let's make this Charity Day better than last year. Let's beat last year's total of 120 quilts!!! Thanks. Denise, Joan and Pamela

MEMBERSHIP NOTICE

The membership roster closes in October. If you have not renewed your membership by that time, you will be dropped from the Membership Roster and not appear on the published Membership List that will be available in November.

OCTOBER BIRTHDAYS

LIBRARY NEWS

In October we will have our Fall book sale. Remember that the sale of books and magazines allow us to buy new books for the library. In addition to the book and magazine sales in October, we will take overdue books and if you have reserved a book or books they will be available for you to borrow. But please remember the new library policy; books can only be borrowed if you have a current membership card -- which we will need to see. We are sorry for all of these new rules, but missing 70 plus books from the library necessitate these changes. We are also setting clear fines about late books. Books can be borrowed for one month and may be renewed for a second month. After that, a fine of $1.00 per month will be levied.

More pleasantly, the Library Committee will be meeting this month to choose books we plan on adding to our library. We hope to add books on hand quilting, sashiko, Amish, quilting designs, landscape quilts and embroidery as examples. Maybe some of our very talented members would also be willing to teach some of those techniques.

Remember, if there is a book you think the Guild should have, call or email me.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

I would like to let you know that I will not be able to attend the October 13th meeting and so the Block that was featured in the September newsletter for the month of October, A Sign of the West, is being held over to the NOVEMBER meeting. Please hold on to your blocks until then. I wish to thank all who have participated in the Block of the Month and I look forward to seeing all of your wonderful blocks in November.

T-Shirt Embellishment Focus Group (Also sweats, shirts, nighties, etc.)

Date: Saturday, October 13, 2007

Time: 10:30 am

Group Leader: Anna Foss

Location: Fashion Institute of Technology (F.I.T.), David Dubinsky Center, 8th Floor, 27th Street & 8th Avenue, NYC

Open To: All guild members.

Tee Shirt Focus Group Update: After our first session, we need to rename the group to "No Limits Embellishment". Members brought bags in addition to tees and sweats. Oh, what can be done with a black feather boa! We exchanged ideas, tips, techniques, and Janet Randolph gave us a spur-of-the-moment class in making a reversible bag as well as a small preview of her work. At least one of our group went home and promptly cut a sweat up the front and opened the sleeves ready to stitch. Come join us in October, bring something you've done or just lap up what others are doing.
