The Stores

We have chosen our favorite stores to maximize shopping time.

Stop # 1: Sauder's (75 minutes)

Great prices and selection, this sister store to Zook's Sauder's has a large selection of batiks for as little as 5.50 and some flatfold (no cuts) cotton yardage for 2.99.

Specialty: backs, batiks

Stop #2: Bird in Hand Country Store (40 minutes)

Part of a country store, new owner. Mention the info online and make a $50 purchase, for a 10% discount. Specialties: contemporary fabrics, cotton lames and jacket/purse patterns.

Stop #3: Quilt & Fabric Shack (50 minutes)

This is a large shop; don't forget to check the back rooms, including the bargain room with 700 bolts of fabric @ $3/yard! Specialties: country, backs

Stop #4 Intercourse, PA: Zook's*, Country Store*, Kitchen Kettle Village (3 hours)

You'll have three hours to visit two lovely shops and grab a bite (or better yet, bring a brown bag and have more time and $ to shop!). Zook's is the sister store to Sauder's; they have a good selection of cottons, including Amish black. The Country Store has a large selection of oriental and contemporary fabrics, and a wonderful Quilt Museum upstairs, where photography is permitted! As for dining, Kling House is recommended if you have time (it's table service only), and there are several other eateries in the village.

There is a time limit for each store. Please respect the limits set for the group, and leave enough time for cutting and payment.

All stores accept cash and major credit cards.

To maximize Be speedy about your selection. Use this guide to shop for certain fabrics at certain shops.

While there are some gadgets and patterns, fabrics are the specialties of these stores.
