The Broadway Jane raffle quilt is the Empire Quilters' interpretation of the quilt made by Jane A. Stickle in 1863, and made famous by author Brenda Manges Papadakis via her book Dear Jane: The Two Hundred Twenty-Five Patterns from the 1863 Jane A. Stickle Quilt. The vivid colors were chosen by the Empire Quilters' design committee, and the blocks and triangles were made by many guild members. With this quilt we honor the traditions of quilters everywhere, and the colorful, complex, and cohesive City of New York. The machine quilting was donated by Little Red Quilt House.

The winning ticket will be drawn by author Brenda Papadakis!
