Make a 42" x 54" quilt in a day, doing it assembly line style. Learn how a simple pattern can result in stunning quilts. Discover variations to keep you making more. You precut your choice of fabrics. This is a fun workshop for those who want to learn how to speed piece and move a project along quickly and accurately. Beginners will get practice and advice.

Supplies needed:

- Sewing machine in good working order with extension cord
- Iron and ironing mat
- Choose at least 3 to 4 fabrics that contrast and coordinate
- Cut 7 strips 2½" x width of 44" fabric A
- Cut 6 strips 2½" x width of 44" fabric B
- Cut 17 blocks 6½" fabric C
- Cut 4 strips 6½" x width of 44" fabric D (border)
- Cut 6 yards 2½" Binding — fabric to coordinate
- Flannel backing fabric 1½ yards
- Traditional or low loft Crib Batt
- Thread to match
- Pins, cutting mat, quilting ruler and rotary cutter
- 22" square of fabric to make bias binding for the quilt (Optional, if you want to learn how to make your own bias binding.)
