JUDGING COMMITTEE

All judging volunteers are to meet with the Judging Committee at 12:15 p.m., in the board room, on February 14th, prior to our general meeting. We will review the procedures to be followed on judging day(s) March 7th (and 8th, if necessary).

BEADS MAKE THE QUILT WITH NANCY EHA

Nancy Eha is an internationally recognized artist, teacher and author. She will join us to talk about all things beads. Beads can add color, texture, sparkle and interest to quilts. But beads can also transcend their customary role of mere embellishment and become a primary element of the quilt design. Nancy will help us expand our understanding of fabric beading with a plenitude of possibilities.

Nancy is a life-long resident of Minnesota and has traveled extensively to share her knowledge and passion on the subject of beading with others. She has explored nearly every needle art, and is constantly inspired by those she meets. She continually incorporates new elements and techniques into her work. Her artistry and know-how continue to inspire quilters world-wide. Nancy is in high demand as an instructor, with an ability to make the seemingly complex easy to understand via small steps. Nancy is the author of two books, Bead Creative, and her newest release Bead Creative Like Crazy.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I send cheery greetings on a cold winter day. What a wonderful time this is to be working on our quilts for the show in March. Many have already finished, while others, including yours truly, still have a bit of work to get to the finish line. It looks like we'll have another exquisite show this year, with nearly 170 quilts submitted (including 30 President's Challenge quilts) so far. I hope we'll have a few more submissions in the mail.

The Show committees – and there are several – are making wonderful progress. This is my second show with Empire Quilters, and I feel almost as excited now as in 2007.

I feel less nervous than I did in 2007 because we know better what is needed to make the show excellent. We have both returning committee people and new people – so we have the benefit of learning from the past experience as well as getting fresh ideas from new members.

There are many reasons we joined the Guild – to learn more about our craft – particularly being exposed to many and diverse experiences; to participate in the various activities of the Guild, and to meet people who may become good friends. Our meetings are busy and not always conducive to talking and getting to know others in the guild. A very easy way to expand the possibilities to get to know others is to volunteer for the guild – either in an on-going committee (Charity, raffles, Library, etc.) or on a committee for the show. As always, we need people to help with the month-to-month activities. It isn't always possible for us (the Board and the Nominating committee) to know who wants to be more active - -so PLEASE DON'T WAIT TO BE ASKED TO HELP. We still have positions to fill for next year. Let me know what you want to help with. WE NEED YOU. I'll see you in February –
Jennifer

SHOW 2009

We are rapidly approaching the date of our show-March 21, 22. We had a very successful quilt entry day thanks to Jennifer Bigelow, Joan Hellmann, Marilyn Korn, and all their helpers. We had entries from 90 members and expect even more in the mail.

Make sure that, if you have entered a quilt, you have submitted your volunteer form to either Emily Klainberg or Barbara Feinstein. Remember, if you enter a quilt and do not do your volunteer work, you will be excluded from hanging a quilt in our next show.

Since everyone who attends must pay an entry fee, we are going to pre-sell the wristbands at the March meeting. This should help to alleviate the long lines at the entrance. The entry fees for the show are listed below.

Please don't forget to sell your Broadway Jane tickets and turn the money into Paula Kenney as soon as possible. This is the main fundraiser for the show and we need to make as much money as possible on the quilt to insure that the show is a success. I know that times are hard, but every ticket helps! If you need additional books, we have plenty. Please contact either Paula Kenney or Kitty Squire to get them.

At the February meeting we will be handing out posters and window cards to members to put up in their neighborhoods. Please be thinking about how many you would like and where you can put them up. We want to draw as large a crowd as possible to see our wonderful quilts!

ADVANCE WRISTBAND SALES FOR URBAN INSPIRATIONS 2009 SHOW

We will be pre-selling the quilt show admission wristbands at the March 7, 2009, Empire Meeting. Buy your own, your spouse's, and for any guests you are inviting to the show. We would appreciate it if you could bring exact change or a check. The admission charge is as follows:

General Admission: $10.00/person/day; $18.00 for 2 days

Seniors (65 years and older): $8.00/person/day; $15 for 2 days

Students (with valid ID): $8.00/person/day; $15 for 2 days

Children (under 12): FREE (These wrist bands must be picked up at the door)

MARCH CHARITY DAY

If any of our members brought in quilts to the January meeting, please stop by the Charity table in February and give me your name so we can thank you in the newsletter. Our annual Charity Day is around once again. The March meeting is the first weekend of the month and I will be at FIT with the batting by 10:00 AM. So if you are there early, you can get started quilting. You can bring in any quilt tops that are ready at the February meeting, and I will bring them back in March. I urge all members to bring a small sewing kit with you, pins, scissors, and needles to tie with. The Guild will provide the batting and floss to complete the quilts. Any members, who are going to bring in their machines, please let me know in advance so we can get the tables set up around the room so you have enough room to work. You can contact Denise at 718-454-1944. I know that everyone is busy finishing their quilts for the show, but the Charity Day is a very important part of the Guild activities and shelters depend on us. Thanks in advance for making our Charity Day a great event and I will see everyone in February. Denise Walsh-Horowitz

LIBRARY NOTES

Now that the Holidays are over, I will be looking at new books to add to our Library. Your input is always welcome. January vendor Lisa Shepard donated two of her books to the library. I don't know which ones, but she will send them to Jennifer Bigelow and I will let you know when they become available. Donations 1/10/09 from: Priscilla Blakemore, Michael Greenberg, Janina Hannum, Veronique Milliez, Rita Reid and Diane Rode Schneck. A couple of members have books overdue since September 2008, I will be in touch before the February meeting. Sylvia Hughes

QUILTER OF THE MONTH

As a very young girl growing up in Northern California, Jane Rosenthal was much more interested in making clothes and quilts for her dolls than she was in playing with them, and she completed some of her first miniature quilt projects while in grade school. Early inspiration came during summer visits to grandma who lived in Lancaster, Pennsylvania where beautiful Amish quilts could be seen hanging from every clothesline. The dramatic colors of the Amish quilts inspired Jane to begin her first queen-size quilt at the age of 12, and she has been quilting ever since.

Jane still admires dramatic use of color, shapes, and likes to experiment with a variety of techniques to create these effects, including patchwork, paper-piecing and appliqué. Her work is influenced by her travels (New York, Hawaii, California, South America, The Pacific Northwest and Europe) as well as the stories and fabrics shared with her by her students during her many years as a teacher of English as a Second Language. When she isn't quilting, Jane is an Educational Psychologist working at New York University.

SUNDAY, MARCH 8, 2009 — TRIP TO QUILT FEST OF NEW JERSEY

While we typically attend The Quilt Festival of New Jersey in Somerset on Saturday, this date conflicts with our March guild meeting, and so the trip date is now scheduled for **Sunday, March 8, 2009. The cost is $45, and we need a minimum of 30 people to make this trip a go. Please RSVP to Aleeda Crawley at her home phone number 973-313-0844 or via email at: acquiltsy@yahoo.com

We will depart at 9:00 a.m. from the corner of 31st Street and 8th Avenue and depart Somerset at 4:00 p.m. Full payment for this trip is due at the February 14, 2009, guild meeting at which time I will know for sure if we have enough people for the trip, and if we are under, but close, allow people who have signed up the opportunity to pay a little extra so that we can go. By a little extra, I mean $10 or less. **NOTE: you must have someone pick up your quilt from judging on Sunday, March 8 between 1:00pm and 3:00pm if you go to this show.
