Guild Members Head to the North Pole.

Greetings my fellow guild members. Each issue I have so many ideas for articles and ideas to present for your reading pleasure. However, there are also so many wonderful things that happen in the interim that causes me to table my original ideas. In this instance, I will save my Quilt Festival 2011 features for slower news months. Instead, I want to take you all on a trip to the North Pole. Many of the guild members hopped in Santa's sleigh and ended up in a wonderful toy shoppe. (Yes I know we could never have made it there and back, but humor me, smiles)

On Saturday, November 19, 2011 beginning at 6pm members of the Empire Guild took over City Quilter and turned it into Santa's Workshop. We had a full house, filled with yummy snacks and sweets, laughter and giggles, glitter and glue, with machine's a whirring, scissors cutting, and a cocktail or two. It was an amazing evening all for the holidays well deserving boys and girls.

As I always say, what's more fun than Cocktails and Thread. (Yes that is my brand's name.)

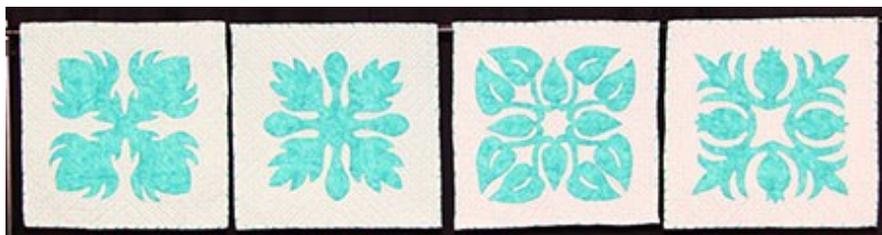

Enjoy,
Earamichia

MD Anderson Quilt Auction, by Diane Paul

The Md Anderson on-line quilt auction which benefits research in gynecological cancers at the center concluded on Nov 7. Empire members Karen Monath and Diane Paul had quilts in the auction. Karen's Twirling Stars (number 34) was sold for $326 and her Bellas Buttons (number 103) brought in $175. Diane's 4 Hawaiian wall-hangings (number 129) were sold as a lot bringing in $425. There will be another auction in 2013. Maybe we can have more Empire quilters send in donations.

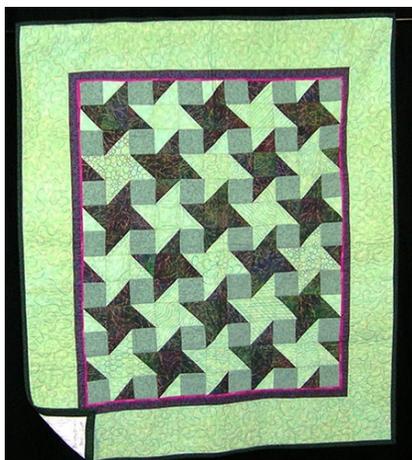

To see all the quilts go to www3.mdanderson.org/auction/quilt

THE CITY QUILTER®

212-807-0390 • www.cityquilter.com

Announcing The CQ's Subway PJ's!! made by us in NYC
a unique New York gift available in 4 sizes

Seasons Greetings From Your Service Committee

Our holiday charity projects - making stockings and stuffed animals – are well underway. I'm pleased to report that in November we received donations from over 50 members, including stockings, drawstring totes, stuffed animals, other toys, toiletries and various types of clothing for children of various ages. On Saturday, November 19 nearly twenty members gathered at The City Quilter to make stuffed animals and stockings. Armed with glitter and glue the stockings were joyfully decorated. I thank Cathy Rizzo for so generously donating the use of her shop and providing snacks and drinks. We all had a great time and couldn't believe how quickly the 4 hours passed.

As you get ready for your winter holidays I hope you will continue to make stockings and animals and bring them to the December meeting. The more we get the more we can give to the holiday festivities for the children and families in NYC shelters, who otherwise might not have other gifts this year. In addition to the handmade articles we're glad to collect and distribute other items. So, for those who would rather buy a gift (or more than one) here are some of the things we are permitted to include in the stockings: toiletry items such shampoo, conditioner, moisturizer, toothpaste, toothbrushes, combs, soap; playing cards, coloring books and crayons; paper and pencils or pens; other small toys, stuffed animals; hats, gloves, mittens, socks; books for all ages of children. Please donate only new items (not used or hand-me-downs – they won't be accepted). Do not contribute any opened toiletries or makeup, as they won't be accepted. Any food items that are donated must be individually wrapped so they can be distributed at the three shelters' holiday parties. It will be helpful if you place toiletries in Ziploc bags, which will eliminate a great deal of work for the committee in assembling toiletries into bags/stockings. You can begin bringing in your contributions at the November meeting.

As mentioned last month we are asking for members to help put together the stockings and gifts following the December meeting. Mary Butler has secured a work space for us at 339 West 24th Street (between 8th and 9th Avenue), Community room 2B.

This is a FREE workshop! We'll start at 10 a.m. and we have the space until 5 p.m. With lots of helpers I expect we can get all the stockings stuffed, and the other gifts packaged in a few hours. Bring friends and family – the more the merrier. We'll provide snacks and some soda. You can let us know if you're coming, or just drop in for a spell. It will be fun and we'll all feel so happy.

Heather Holtz, Temporary Shelter—A Quilt Installation, From the Editor

It is funny how this newsletter has a mind of its own. I was asked to include information about this exhibit by Heather Holtz, and it has turned into a mini piece. Why, you may ask. Simply put, it reminds me of all the things that we must be thankful for, especially during this overly commercial holiday season.

Heather's installation entitled Temporary Shelter is an installation piece that tells the stories of homeless New Yorkers. As I went through the gallery, I found myself drawn to the stories of the pieces. For instance, she has a piece called "Temporary Shelter" that tells the story of homeless New Yorkers ages 4-75. She says that the panels within are representative of individuals staying in NYC's faith based shelters. Most touching is that the outside walls are made from fiber art that was created by children living in NYC's family shelters.

As we go about our busy holiday lives, we should take a moment and reflect on all those that do not have. That is another reason why it was so much fun to travel to the "North Pole" with my fellow guild members.

Guild Members Showcase at the International Quilt Festival, Houston

The International Quilt Festival 2012, Houston was an incredible experience. I attended my first ever International Quilt Festival, took classes, salivated over all of the gorgeous quilts that were on display, and spent ohh so much money with the vendors. I am happy to report that our very own guild members were featured as well. CAVE-AT: I do not have a list of all members that had a quilt that hung this year, so if you are not here, send an email and I will mention you with your picture in a future newsletter.

We Need Your Feedback

The Guild Board of Directors is discussing whether or not we should have another quilt show. However, in order to go forward with a show, we really need feedback from the membership on whether or not there should be a show. Please answer the following survey questions for us regarding a future show.

Would you support another quilt show? YES NO Indifferent

If you answered yes, please answer the following questions:

- Should the show be every 2 years? YES NO
- Would you like to see a longer period between shows? YES NO

If you think we should have another show, do you think it should be:

- Similar to the 2011 Show? YES NO
- Smaller than the 2011 Show? YES NO
- Bigger than the 2011 Show? YES NO

Do you think a future show should have:

- More quilts? YES NO
- More Vendors? YES NO
- More Presentations? YES NO
- Member Boutique YES NO

What show committee would you like to serve on for the next show?

What have you seen at other shows that you would like to see at our show?

Name: _____

Please fill out and give this survey to either Jennifer Bigelow or Lisa Kehrle at the December 10th Guild Meeting. Or, if you prefer, please e-mail Lisa Kehrle at Lisank2010@gmail.com with your responses. Thank you for your feedback.

On the Road....

Shopping Trip to Lancaster Area

We met as planned at 8:00am and headed out to the Lancaster, PA area on a beautiful fall day. We visited Sauders, Buckholders, The Old Country Store and Quilt Museum and Zooks. Driving around Amish country was truly lovely and we passed many horse and buggies. The fabric stores were owned and run by the Amish and we literally had miles and miles of fabric to choose from and we shopped and shopped and shopped. We arrived back in New York City with all our bags and bundles ready to begin projects that will last us through the winter and perhaps several winters.

Trip to Parsons Meares Costume Shop Set for January 17, 2012

Our next trip is planned for Tuesday, January 17th at 4:30pm. We will have a guided lecture and tour of this design facility where we will have an opportunity to see how costumes are produced from sketch to final fitting. This studio produces costumes for stage, film, dance and opera. The cost for this tour will be $25. Please let me know as soon as possible if you are planning to participate. We are limited to 20-25 individuals.

Things to Remember....

Holiday Meeting - December 10, 2011

Don't forget to bring your holiday themed quilts as well as any baked goods, and charity items in December. Also remember to bring cash and/or checks as these quilts will make wonderful gifts! You are also welcome to bring any guests you like as there will be no guest fee.

Please drop off your quilt at the membership table on your arrival. The baked goods should be taken to the area by the coffee service. The charity items should be delivered to the charity tables. The quilts will be sorted into separate lots and will be spread throughout the church so that you can look at them before the meeting.

After a short business meeting, we plan to have a quick show and tell for the donated quilts (and any other holiday quilts you want to bring in to show). It will be fun to hear about the various holidays our members have come up with. After that, we will proceed with the auction. Many thanks to our auction volunteers, Emily Klainberg, Barbara Feinstein and Michael Greenberg!

If you have any questions, please contact either Kitty Squire (kesquilts33@msn.com) or Lisa Kehrlé (lisank94@aol.com).

Quilters of the Month Needed

We are looking for Volunteers to be Quilter of the Month. What is Quilter of the Month? It's a short (10 minute) presentation of your work that you present at the monthly guild meeting. Typically we do the presentation after the guest speaker or after Show & Tell. Presenting 10 - 15 pieces works best. They do not have to be finished -- tops are fine. You can show a range of your work or a group of themed pieces. The work can be quilts or quilting/sewing related. We aim to have five Quilter of the Month presentations this year and are looking for volunteers. There are openings in 2012. If interested, please contact Debra Levin at deblevin@verizon.net
